THE WHITE (?) UOLORED TEACHER

His Solilcouy.

(Tune: Susanna.)

[Note: This song is republished by request, It first appeared in the PLANur early in the present decade when a white man was appointed a teacher for colored children at Baker St. School. The colored people of the city resented the appointment and Eva embodied their sentiments in the following verses and sent them to the PLANEr for publi-

- I had a dream the other night.
- When everything was still, I dreampt I was a shining light, At Baker on the hill.
- I am a white man of the whites,
 My scholars they are black,
 I don't believe in civil rights,
 But money I do lack.

Chorus:-Oh! white people! Don't you cry for me,
I'm now at Baker on the hill
A teaching A. B. C.

- I tried my luck for Central School, But I could not succeed,
 They said they did not want a fool
 Fo teach white boys to read.
 I then struck off for fair Bellevue,
 Which crowns old grim Church Hill
- But they would not accept my view How lessons to instill.
- I tried for each white school in town, A teacher to become, All said they did not want a clown. Who could not "work a sum."

 I asked but one chance in their sight,
 My skill to demonstrate.

How I could train the young mind right, And figures operate.

But now I teach at Baker school, One lone white man am I, What if I am naught but a tool, I cannot starve and die, The School Board of this famous to Hath done a wondrous thing. The schools in spite of every frown, They've thrown into the ring. The others who are teaching there,

Are of the colored race.

My skin I know is very fair,

And that I'm in disgrace: Eleven dames, not of my class, With whom I mast be thrown, Will scorn my monumental brass, And spurn me for a drone.

But what on earth am I to do, To earn my daily bread?
I've begged of Gentile and of Jew,
And many tears have shed.
But now at Baker on the hill,
A pedagogue am I,
A colored school to teach and drill!

Oh! give me wings to fly!

INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE

The 11:30 o'clock services last Sunday at the Ebenezer Baptist Church will long be remembered by those present. For 25 years of long and faithful service Rev. Richard Wells has stood before that people and presented them to the throne of a merciful God without a spot upon the hem of his garment. The church was crowded and a large number of communicants from other churches were present-many notable persons among them. The hymns were of the choicest selections and cbented to the delight ferns and other potted plants in front of the rostrum and a beautiful and se-lect variety of the most charming cut flowers and small plants. At 11:45 o'clock. the main auditorium was crowded and every face seemed to wear a smile of a gracious welcome and crowning benediction to the pastor, who had served the church and congregation for over 25 years.

At 12 o'clock sharp the servant of the Most High God came forth with his usual and becoming modesty, and in a few words, which commanded the large audience whose sea of charming faces was now united upon him, the Rev. C. N. Grandison, D. D., who had kev. C. N. Grandison, D. D., who had been previously chosen to preach on the occasion. Dr. Grandison took his text from Rev. 3:12; Subject, "Human struggle in life." After a few prelimi-nary remarks the Doctor presented the outline of his discourse, which seemed to close in the attention of every person of the large audience upon him and the subject. His word-picture of the divine will and the human struggle to go forth as a superior being, and make himself felt as the creation and servant of the Most High God, was indeed graphic and of the loftiest sentiment. His thoughts were profound at times and of the most logical and at times and of the most logical and electrifying reasoning. The sermon was one of great power and truly edi-fying to all present.

At 3:30, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Kirby filled the desk. This brilliant orator captured his large audience the very moment he was presented and after a moment he was presented. few complimentary remarks, presched a gifted and truly eloquent discourse. His diction was beautiful, his language chaste, lofty and polished.

At 8:30, one of the faithful wheel-horses was in harness in the person of Rev. W. fi. White. This divine is one of the favorite sons of this prosperous and successful church. He fed the flock with choice and rich food from the good Master's table to the glory and gratification of his vast sea of at

May he live long to defend the cause.
At the Second Baptist Church there were excellent services during the enwere excellent services during the entire day. Rev. Z. D. Lewis, D. D. gave his people some wholesome and edifying instructions which were listened to in the most earnest and attentive manner. The Sunday School was reported to be of unusual interest. To-day at 5 p. m., you are invited to the explanation of the Sunday School Lesson. Come and bring your neighbor.

The chicers and teachers seemed fully alive to their work and the pupils seem ed earnestly interested and bent on getting all the instructions possible.

the Sunday School and church, though owing to the inclement weather, all were a little tardy.

At the devotional exercises, the pastor, Rev. H. Powell preached a stirring and strong sermon.

3:30, the former pastor, Rev. John P. Clark filled the pulpit in a very acceptable manner, and gave his hearers a forcible, plain, good sermon, which all seemed to highly appreciate. Rev. J. H. Turner preached at 8:30. The sermon was well received.

A MOB REIGNS SUPREME.

On Sunday, 25th ult., it was announce ed by the pastor of the Fifth Church that there would be a grand lecture to Knights and Sisters of the two Hemispheres at that church on Thursday night, 29th, and a very large crowd would be out. All were asked to come to hear and see. We were later informed that the neighborhood was well canvassed and all urged to come, and see the big turn-out. On the evenand see the big turn-out. On the evening that the grand turn-out and parade was announced to take place, we were greatly tempted to visit the Second Church to hear a sermon by that

So about 8:30, we went forth to lend our presence and report the big parade, etc. We lingered around the sanctum until 9 o'clock. At the gate we saw a lonely Knight, (we suppose one the two Hemispheres) leaning feebly on the gate. Some one asked, 'How long before the big procession will come?" "Oh they are coming now with a bard of music." We strelled a few blocks and halted at Main and Harrison Sts. After waiting some little time we heard the tap of a drum and heard the shout, "There they come." Here we hoped to get a good view, and we did, but before that view, the roughs and toughs that had been the roughs and toughs that had been drawn together by the music and padrawn together by the music and a regurade met the up-town boys and a regurade we lar bombardment commenced. We stood behind an electric post for our battery, but the rocks came so thick and fast we were forced to leave. Sev-eral windows were smashed and people left their porches for fear of being

We then went out Harrison Street to the church and we were told a regular bombardment had taken place right in front of the church. We saw two dea-cons close the outer doors to drown the noise. At this moment another battle began, and we felt called upon to assist the church officials in having order restored. So we moved among the angry combatants. After urging the mob away several squares. we reters? we asked, "about 25 or 30," the answer.

Brooklyh. Aug. 15, 1891.—This is to certify that came to New York from Albany. I was a stranger in a strange city, out of work and one of money. I had no luck in anything i understook. What to do I did not know. A friencast vised me to go and see Dr. Shea. I did. He told me the cause of my troubles; he took me in and treated me as a brother. Through him I got a good position that very week. I had been to others; they took my money and did me me good. I bless the day I first met Dr. Shea. I would advise all in bad luck, sick or in trouble to go to him at once. Sincerely

Brooklyn, Aug. 15, 1891.—This letter 13 to certif y that my husband had gone away 1.1d had been absent two years, I mourned for him night and day. I gave him up, as dead. Hearing of the wonderful things Dr. Shea was doing I reselved to consult him. He told me that my husband to consult him. He told me that my husband was alive and well, and where he was, told me he would come home and when. To my ley ali of it came true. He is home now, came to back like one from the dead. I also wish to my that this month I lost $200. I am a poor wome in and I was almost insane. I went to Dr. Shea and he told me I would find my money and to my intense joy I did find it as he told ma. thank God there is a man so gifted in our mids that can help people and tell them whr.2 to do Sincerely. A SENSATION IN BROOKLYN.-A MINIE TER'S STATEMEN'1.

I wish to state that one of my parishoners was sick and in treable for a long time, Mys-Brown, 87. Gay Strett. No one seemed to us derstand her case. She had several doctors but none of them seemed to know what was the matter. None could do her any good. It was my duty as her pastor to call and see her. Hearing of the wonderful work being done by the Shea the last few years, I thought I would call and see him mysait. I found him a kind was Shea the last few years, I thought I would call and see him myseif. I found him a kind ayn-pathetic gentieman. He gave me a wonderful test of his pewers told me to send him a load of parties hair, which I did by her daughter. He told at once what was the matter and in a short time cured her sound and well. Her family had seemingly been under a cloud. Now all is changed. An are well and prosperous. I can truly and heartily recommend Dr. Shea. to all those in sickness or distress or any kind, Rev. William Johnson, Pastor Lebanon Church Brooklyn.
